Gaye Wilson Chosen For 'Miss Torrance'

(The following items are excerpts of stories previously printed by the HERALD which are reprinted today as a background for HERALD's Thursday readers. All stories printed below were reported in detail in the Sunday HERALD, July 29).

Eighteen-year-old Gaye Wilson, sponsored by Paul's Chevrolet, was crowned "Miss Torrance" after final judging in the annual beauty pageant here Friday night in the Civic Auditorium.

The blonde beauty won the coveted "Miss Torrance" title in competition with 17 other Torrance candidates. She succeeds Yolanda Goldsmith who held the title during the past year.

Runners-up in the order of their finish were Marti Fowler, 16; Lynne Lehr, 20; Lila Robertson, 17, and Joyce Cannon, 16. The annual contest is sponsored by the Torrance Area Youth Band.

174th St., as pastor succeeding Rev. Homer Miller, who has taken up church work in Phoenix, Ariz.

The new pastor hails from Illinois, where he was graduated from Wheaton College and the Fuller Theological Seminary. He is experienced in youth work and has directed church camps in the middle west.

Trio Held for Blitz

A trio of men will be arraigned Aug. 8 in Long Beach Superior Court on charges they robbed a Harbor City family more than three months ago.

In jail now on $25,000 bail each are Frederico Munoz, 23, Wilber Nobriga, 20, and Manuel Diaz, 18, all of San Pedro.

The three are accused of forcing their way into the home of the C. L. Smiths, at 1710 W. 257th St. Smith, his wife, Helen, and Clifford Smith, a brother, were terrorized and robbed of $800.

Airport Plan Studied

Under study by members of the Airport Commission is a new master plan for development of the city-owned facility presented this week by representatives of Quinton Engineers, employed by the city to prepare the plan. Details of the firm's recommendations were not revealed.

Following study of the plan by the commissioners, a recommendation on the matter will be given to the City Council for study and adoption if approved.

Smith in Big Game

Skip Smith, Torrance High graduate and recent recipient of the Most Valuable Player Award in the first Annual Optimist Football Game, was recently selected to participate in the 1956 All America Prep Football Game, Aug. 15, in Memphis, Tenn.

A barrage of homeruns and the blazing no-hit pitching of Jim Cairns valuted the Torrance American Little League All-Stars over their North Torrance rivals yesterday, 9-0, at Dominguez Field here in the district tournament.

Ladder challenge matches in all divisions are now under way between members of the Torrance Riviera Tennis Club, located in El Retiro Park.

SHERIFF BISCALUZ will ride at the head of the parade here Saturday, Aug. 11 as Parade Marshal for the dedication ceremonies at the new Civic Center, it has been announced by Parade Chairman George Vico. The popular Los Angeles County Sheriff will be among scores of other State dignitaries attending the affair.

Opponents Of Incorporation Pass Pamphlet

Opponents of the move to incorporate Lomita are circulating a pamphlet called "Incorporate Lomita?—No!" in that area in carrying their fight to those in favor of incorporation of the area south of Torrance.

Under the sponsorship of the Citizens Committee Opposing Incorporation of Lomita, L. E. Ross, chairman, the publication urges Lomita residents to join the drive against incorporation. A running battle between residents of the area has been on for about two weeks over the proposal.

The committee cites such reasons as higher taxes, "renting" police, building, health and road department services from Los Angeles County, and foreseeable political fights over who would be mayor, councilmen, etc., as the main moves in fighting the measure.
